All goods and services supplied by Kodak Limited are supplied subject to current "General Terms of Business in Europe for Kodak Products and Services", a copy of which will be sent on request.

Please note that products required for use with premium promotions (i.e. schemes in which KODAK products are offered as an incentive to buy another maker's goods or services) are supplied subject to special "Terms of Business for Premium Users". Further information and a copy of these special Terms of Business can be obtained from Catalogue and Premium Sales Kodak Limited.

Emergency Health and Safety Enquiry Service

Kodak Limited provides a 24-hour emergency information service for health and safety purposes in the event of accidents involving 'Kodak' products.

During normal working hours (8.30 a.m. to 5.00 p.m.) telephone 01-427 4380 and ask for extension 103. Should this extension be engaged, ask for the Company Health and Safety Department.

Outside normal working hours (5.00 p.m. to 8.30 a.m.) and during public holidays, telephone the same number, i.e. 01-427 4380. The call will be answered by the duty telephonist, who has been instructed in the procedures to adopt. After noting the problem, he or she will either transfer the call to the Sister on duty in the Medical Dept., or alternatively, will arrange for the appropriate person to telephone back.

Because of our constant endeavour to improve quality and design, modifications may be made to products from time to time. Details of stock availability and specifications given in this catalogue are subject to alteration without notice.

Kodak, and product names printed thus – KODACHROME, INSTAMATIC, 'Plus-X' – are trade marks
