KODAK PROFESSIONAL CATALOGUE 1982/83

NEED INFORMATION FROM KODAK?

We do appreciate that your time is valuable. So that you will not waste it, we have tried to anticipate many of the queries you may have. Almost all 'Kodak' products – films, papers, chemicals, equipment, etc. – are packed complete with an instruction sheet or book. You have probably heard the old saying "When all else fails, try reading the instructions".

Commercial or professional products

For enquiries about commercial or professional products please contact the Kodak Sales Centre nearest to you (see page 47), or contact your Kodak Appointed Professional Wholesaler.

Orders

For orders please contact your nearest Regional Distribution Centre, if you have an account with us (see page 47). Otherwise, contact your Kodak Appointed Professional Wholesaler.

Equipment service

Please contact your local Customer Equipment Service Centre (see page 47).

Processing by Kodak

For enquiries about colour processing services please contact: Kodak Limited, Maylands Avenue, Hemel Hempstead, Herts. HP2 7EJ. Phone: Hemel Hempstead (0442) 42191.

Kodak Literature

The answers to most questions about 'Kodak' products or some application of photography can be found in Kodak literature. We have many publications available, and many of them are available free of charge. The more generally used publications are listed on page 40.
