Have you some old or recently acquired drawings you'd like to see on your current forms—looking trim, trig, completely up to date? It would be quite a job, of course, to retrace each one. But really there's no need to do that. Just send the drawings and a couple of your new forms in to us. We'll do the "face-lifting" for you, practically overnight!

It's a special technique we employ, in which we make use of those amazing materials, Kodagraph Paper and Film. We know you'll be pleased with the reproductions we'll deliver to you . . . will find them long lasting, easy to revise, crisp and sharp, excellent for print-making and drafting room use. And you'll like our very moderate charges. Why not send in your order today?
